Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

INTRODUCTION

The countdown to the end of days is manifest in the world today, promoting a curious wonder that the end of life as we know it, the end of days, may be closer than we think. When we suddenly begin to notice that things around us are turning bad, really bad, and we see before us that “nothing gold can stay,” then, truly, we are there. Considering that the world has been in the end times since the death of the last Apostle, the Gospel has been the greatest harbinger of this truth through signs and prophecy, detailing the course to be taken during the days of uncertainty, already fulfilled by Scripture, which will culminate with Christ’s return. Not only are we, members of the world, living in the end times, as of the last century, we are standing at the threshold of oblivion as witnessed by the evil one’s desperate haste in destroying all things good and of God, even within God’s Church. Today, sin runs rampant throughout the world as never before because Satan is having his last romp, his final fling before he is no more.

The Catholic faith teaches the apostolic truth about the Second Coming of Christ. The Protestant faiths, however Christian and loyal to God and Jesus Christ,

For the Glory of God

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

draw their own conclusions as to how the end will come. Protestants believe in the Rapture (in all fairness, not all members of the Protestant faith are of this belief); that the “Rapture” will occur seven (7) years before the “official” return of Our Lord. The Protestant leaders had determined that Christ will return during the first “Rapture,” to raise up the faithful at that time, then return again for the final judgment of the non-believers, and of Catholics. This misinformation among non-Catholics that Christ will return to earth twice, as Himself, three times if you count His coming to earth as Man, is false information and nowhere to be found in the Bible.¹ Such false beliefs are a gross misconception of both Scripture and tradition. For those who would accept this belief, know that it is heresy and not borne of the Gospel. The disdain many Protestants have for Catholics and the Holy Church is purely driven by lack of knowledge, truth, and, in large part, ego. The Bible does tell us to beware of false teachers, and, these days, there are far too evangelists and motivational preachers spreading their own ideas and misconceptions of what is written in the Bible and of how the Good Book should be interpreted.

There is only one Church of God, one only founded by Jesus Christ, the Progenitor of Christianity. The “official” Church of God on earth is the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Sadly, today, more than ever, humankind is denying God. According to recent statistics, as reported by the Marian Fathers of the Shrine of Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Massachusetts, there are approximately 3.5 billion Christians worldwide, with the majority of those Christians being Catholic. The second predominant religion is Islam, (non-believers in the one true God and Jesus Christ), and the third largest sect are the non-believers, atheists, agnostics, and followers of the evil one. The once foremost Catholic country in the world...France...is now only four percent (4)% Catholic with a greater percentage being Muslim, a faith that denounces the one true God; Jesus Christ.

While the protestant faiths are “Christian” without question, they do not know the fullness of God, His Church, nor do they accept the Catholic Church as the Holy Mother Church and the “official” Church of Christ. There is much proof, and factual evidence, with which to oppose the non-believers, to be addressed throughout the website.

The entire concept of the Holy Roman Catholic Church is based upon the well-defined Word of God; the Holy Bible, Magisterium, Dogma, Faith and Tradition, and not upon self-imposed doctrines. Christ intended that there be only one “church” and, yet, today, we can count approximately 30,000 different faiths, many of them non-believers in God and Jesus Christ as true God and true man. The overwhelming number of man-made religions will be borne to dust upon Christ’s return for when He returns, priests and preachers will be out of commission as the one true Priest, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, Who IS High Priest and King of Kings, will reign entirely and eternally.

There is no intent to mock other Christian faiths who believe in God and Jesus Christ, nor should anyone mock or question Judaism, the original faith of Jesus Christ. It is to speak the truth about God’s “church” built upon a rock and why there is only one Holy Church. The fact being that Jesus Christ appointed one man, (Saint) Peter, the Apostle, to lead His “Church” on earth and that “church” was, and is, “Christianity” which began with the teachings of Jesus and culminated formally upon the “rock” where Jesus gave His directive to Peter. By virtue of Peter’s journey to, his settling in, and his martyrdom in Rome, where he had decided to establish the seat of Christianity, the official rooting of Christianity began in Rome. The faith became known as “Roman Catholic” because of its connection to Rome, and the word “Catholic,” which means “universal,” became the accepted designation for Christianity. People, do the research and educate yourselves on Christ and His Church for in these most uncertain and turbulent end days, mankind must come together as one flock, under the tutelage of the faith, in preparation for when the true Shepherd returns.

For the Glory of God

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

According to the Bible, the true Word of God, five (5) signs will precede Christ’s Return. The Second Coming, heralded by the Glory of God, will occur after a time of Tribulation, said to take place over a seven-year period. Thereafter, the Heavenly Kingdom of God will descend to a new earth, as the new Holy City of Jerusalem, for all eternity.

What do we know of the Kingdom of God? As has been taught, the Kingdom of

For the Glory of God

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

God exists already upon the earth. For centuries the faithful have questioned and searched for God's Kingdom, perhaps, expecting a "city" of Holy proportions to be located somewhere on mortal soil. Others have understood the phrase "the Kingdom of God is within you" to mean that God is within us, which He is, and while this very statement implies a truth, the spiritual "Kingdom of God," is, in actuality, the Christian faith given to us by Jesus Christ. Prior to the old earth's passing away, and the creation of the new earth, the physical Kingdom of God will descend from Heaven and the presiding Vicar of Christ will leave Rome, vacating to the High Priest and King of all creation.

Although the end of times is said to have existed for centuries, the closeness in proximity to the actuality of the end days could be as near as tomorrow. No one except God, Himself, knows the day or the hour when Christ will return, not even His angels. However, the five (5) eminent signs appearing in the great book of the sacred mysteries aptly indicates how close we are, as two, perhaps, three, of the signs have already come to pass. We may, very well, be nearest to the beginning of the Tribulation, by virtue of inhumane and natural conditions severely taxing the world.

The time is now for all faithful in Christ to realign to the faith, to return to God's Church and help raise it up, to defend against the evil from without, as well as from within, and to prepare the "Bride of Christ," the Church, for the Groom, Who is Jesus Christ. God's Kingdom on earth, but also His physical Church, will prevail!

Defense comes through constant prayer and in taking a stand against the blasphemies committed against Our Lord, His Blessed Mother, Our Mother, and the Holy Eucharist; insurrections against the Holy Church by the evil one and his minions: the non-believers, the Satanists, and members of the communist and socialist governments seeking to transform God's Church, and Christianity, as a whole; vanquishing God's Kingdom into a universal empire where world leaders of a NWO (new world order) will worship one another and their unholy idols in a heinous attempt to destroy Jesus Christ and His Will on earth. Pray! Pray,

For the Glory of God

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

especially, pray the Rosary, the most powerful weapon against evil. Pray for the government leaders of the world who have had the audacity to commit the most deliberate offenses to God by pushing laws defending abortion, promoting abortion on to the vulnerable and godless masses, the very young, the confused and fearful mothers to be. Pray that the Holy Father will consider restricting from God's Church such politicians, even questionable leaders who claim to be Roman Catholic, those who, mindless of their faith, promote sin and the murder of innocence without one iota of regret. Abortion is a grave sin. Mothers who have had abortions are automatically excommunicated from the Church until such time as they repent and make reparation for their sin. Here in the United States, the encouraging of laws that circumvent God's Plan with defiance of ungodly and unlawful abortions, supported by socialist politicians, clearly indicates that the nature of socialist and communist beliefs are wittingly contradictory to the Will of God and, therefore, are leading Americans down a destructive path toward the forfeiting of their own salvation. These actions have prompted public protests in favor of abortion, causing further damage and dissent to the Holy Church and the souls they are to nurture, witnessed by increased daily violence targeting Catholic Churches and priests. Countless women have turned to the sin of promoting abortion because they believe there is no such mention of abortion in the Bible. Here it is stated that abortion is, without question, mentioned in the Holy Bible. Read the Sixth Commandment which says: Thou Shalt Not Kill.

We see Satan in the mix at every turn. Thus, what happens when the Holy Father responds with comments most confusing and making judgments and decisions that border on heresy? While the Pope is infallible only in faith and dogma, as a human, he is a sinner, as we all are. The Pope, Holy Father, is responsible to oversee the flock, steering the lost or curious sheep toward God and not away from Him.

Pope Leo XIII, a prophet as well as one of the most revered and beloved of Holy Fathers, and now, with the death of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, the second longest enduring Pope to reign, was an attested witness to a conversation had between Jesus and Satan which took place in a vision on October 13, 1884, immediately following Sunday Mass presided over by the Holy Father who, then, suddenly passed out, unconscious, beside the Altar. After coming to, the Holy Father appeared horrified and shaken. He had seen a vision of Christ on His throne talking with the evil one who was asking for power enough, and time enough, to destroy God's Church. Christ asked Satan how much time he would need, and the evil one replied "give me one hundred years." Christ complied.

The Holy Father knew the vision to be a clear warning of a future laden with turmoil for both the Holy Church and the faithful. He immediately set about composing the prayer of exorcism to Saint Michael which remains, today, the strongest prayer of protection and exorcism against evil, in one with the Lord's Prayer.

Many leaders of the Church are of the belief that the onset of "one-hundred years" began in 1917, for in that year, relentless evils, beginning with the first World War, began to arise.

Margaret Sanger brought forth her evil indoctrination, her "birth control" agenda to include abortion with the opening of the first birth control "clinic" in New York City.

For the Glory of God

Russia took a dark, bold turn toward communism. It was a year rocked by evil, as even the Catholic Church began falling under the inquisition. But, it was also the year when Our Lady appeared to three poor and pious children at Fatima, Portugal, asking for Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta to spread word of her warnings to the World; that justified chastisements would come if God's children continued to disobey Her son.

The messages from the Apparitions at Fatima are several among many of Our Lady's most frightful prophecies detailing evil and destruction and including the prophecy of scandals that would befall the Roman Catholic Church, a great charge toward perdition and the Abomination of Desolation.

The world has still not heeded the messages given by Our Lady of Fatima, and Our Lady of Good Success, or from the countless apparitions of Our Lady, Queen of the earth, given in various places around the world through her visitations to the pious. People have disregarded the continuing urgent messages brought forth in firm desperation and deep concern by Our Lady. Rather, the world has since adopted more of the ways of the evil one, thus, rapidly fulfilling the prophecy of Pope Leo XIII.

Disbelievers in God continue to raise the question: “If there is a God, why does He allow evil and suffering?” Their conclusions are that no loving God would allow such horrible events to occur, so, therefore, there must be no God. Such questions are more fervently asked today as the dawn of darker days casts it’s shadow, like a mysterious and foreboding fog, seeping slowly and ever so densely, into the realm of secular domain.

It is time for a wake-up call. God exists...period. He is one with the son, Jesus Christ, Who came to earth in the flesh to die for our sins; yours and mine. God’s Will is just. So, why, then, does He allow bad things to happen? It is all part of a master plan. From birth to death, His children shall be “tested.” Yes; God is testing us; testing our faith and our loyalty to Him, and He will continue to test us until the day we leave this earth. His Only Begotten Son, the Just Judge, will then judge us on whether or not we have passed life’s test.

God has allowed us to experience pain and suffering as reminders of the Passion suffered by His beloved son; the unfathomable wounds and piercings, and the secret tortures which defiled His Holy flesh, because of our offenses. Lest we forget that Jesus Christ suffered and died so that we might live! We owe Him our lives, our loyalty, and our singular devotion and praise. Why, then, should we not suffer? Why should we not be tested by the Divine Creator to affirm our loyalty and love for Him Who created us? Why do we selfishly commence to blame God for our sufferings, when it is our sins that condemned Jesus Christ to death upon the Cross? Are we being selfish and ungrateful for our lives and all we have been given, good or bad? Never ask what God can do for you. Ask God what you can do for Him in display of gratitude for all creation. Blaming God for our faults, our despairing and our suffering, is no more than self-centered egotism. Avoid it at all costs. Rather, thank God for your life and for every blessing He has lovingly bestowed upon you. Thank him for your families, for your good fortunes, and, yes; for your grief and sufferings. It is best to remember that without God, we are nothing! Be assured that Satan's reign on earth is nearly at its end. You must feel the incessant push, worldwide, to destroy good and everything God. Satan's force has become more publicly obvious over the last century, with desperate measures being taken in these last days to destroy God's Church and along with it, those souls who are vulnerable sinners and questioners of God. Satan's devious mission is coming to its close even as his temporary power continues raging in the world, and here in the United States, the latter consecrated both to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to Blessed Mary, Mother of God. The God of all sits, waiting, and watching...and testing, for He already knows the outcome, and, soon, we will know it, too.

For the Glory of God

Now is the time to stand strong against the massive incursion of evil and seek God, if you have not yet done so. Jesus Christ is the only one who can save your soul and grant you eternal life. Defile Him, and your fate will be akin to those who follow the evil one. To the evil one, himself, is promised the endless pit of fire: Gehenna! Yes; Virginia... there is a hell and it awaits those who do not believe in, and blaspheme, God and the Holy Spirit. Children of God, this may be your last chance to get it right. Save your souls, and help save the Holy Mother Church from the evil slithering into many a silent sacristy. Stand and fight for God and His truth! Wear the Armor of God and become a crusader for faith, charity and love while there is still time to change heart.

In 2 Peter 3:10, we read: But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything done in it will be laid bare.

And, soon, this shall come to pass.

There are two roads we can take in life: one toward the light, the other into the darkness. One path, only one, will lead us “home.” It is important to understand that God will never give us more than we can handle at one time. Events may happen that can cause great tragedy and overwhelming grief in our lives, however, by committing to the faith, we understand, then, that our earthly existence is only temporary and that suffering must be allowed to compensate for sin. God is a merciful God and seeks to ease our sufferings by granting us a lifetime of guides and guardian angels to help us along on our journey. Again, the still small voices that appear in our minds may be regarded by us as our own conscious advising us what to do or not to do. But have we given any thought to the notion that those voices inside our heads might come from God or His angels? Simply because many do not believe, we rarely give credence to our guardian angels attempting to reach us, to help us. Alas; if we would only listen to what our “minds” might be telling us. Call it inner knowingness. Call it intuition.

However, the still small voices within us are, more times than not, our “better angels,” those sent by God to watch over us from birth until death. Unbeknownst to us, angels are around and make their presence known in unobtrusive ways.

You can rest assured that angels work over time to enlighten us. With Satan and progressive society ushering us deeper into a cataclysmic decline, it is imperative that the faithful re-certify and assert their faith through words and deeds, in all areas of life, to all willing to listen, and even to those who could care less.

It is present day and the Holy Church remains under attack. For centuries, the persecution of Christians and Christianity has been a staple in religious warfare. Christians are hated because of their attachment to Jesus Christ. This has been clearly understood since Jesus first warned his Disciples, who in turn have warned Christ’s followers through Scripture: And ye shall be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. –Matthew 10:22.

Hatred for Christ and His followers is one more tactic in the plot of devious

revenge used by Satan. In recent decades, the hatred toward God, faith, and all things good, has become increasingly threatened and perilous. Persecution of Christian and Jew alike has filtered from the east to the west, and has now permeated the United States like never before, as a dark cloud steadfast overhead with no intention of moving on. A relentless battle continues to rage between good and evil; Satan versus God. Division rather than unity has befallen the great nation of the United States as the shadows of power and greed, ego and fortune, continue to creep into our government halls and work from there to carry out a new world plan to destroy America from within, and all other countries so aligned.

It is happening now. The battle is here...indefinitely. Horrible, satanic-inspired acts against humanity and, especially, against children from every age and creed, continue to offend God and threaten to incur His wrath upon all creation.

This period in time, foretold to us by the prophecy of Pope Leo XIII two centuries ago, in 1884, eerily plays out now more than ever before. Here, too, with fraud-inspired elections and unqualified presidents of the United States

For the Glory of God

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

promoting and condoning sinful acts, the dark forces of evil are overwhelming the earth. To be a good man, today, is frowned upon and that man will be chastised. One former president, whom had never been in politics before, deigned to bring God back into the White House, brokered peace in the Middle East, and stood as a beacon of light at the forefront for those who have witnessed the removal of God from everyday life here in the United States and abroad. He has been hated and unfairly pilloried by fascists and American socialists whose god is the almighty dollar. The rise of a comm-created biochemical weapon funded by fascists in our own nation has caused the deaths of millions of people worldwide for the sheer desire by the powerful elite to “decrease the surplus population.” The riots, the looting, the taking of innocent lives, human trafficking, the executions of those who are to be protecting us, the persecution of Christians and Jews, and the deliberate neglect by progressive leaders to quell these heinous acts in the cities and communities under their watch, has further divided nations and ignited the spark of battles both here and abroad. Satan and his minions will continue their ruthless quest of dividing nations and disrupting life as we know it until the evil one presumes to have it all. For shame that evil cannot reason God always wins, that God will have the last Word and that His Church will NEVER be destroyed. The pit of hell awaits those who seek to defy God as they continue to enforce their dastardly deeds against God and humanity.

Life is all about choices. This is truth. Our clear choice is God, or...death. Choose God above all else and you can save your soul and the souls of those around you. We, humans, cannot live and thrive in darkness. We were born to be in the light and we must let those we know, and love, these truths so they, too, may be saved. Remaining silent, or turning a blind eye to others' sins will not help either you or they. It is our purpose to evangelize God's Word and to promote God's Will to those we know and even the stranger who conforms to sinful ways without recourse.

There are several reasons why the Holy Church has incorporated into their teachings that the last days are upon us. References from Scripture and information gleaned from the Saints who have spoken about, and prophesied on, the end times rekindle the awareness. Two reasons have become most prominent in heralding this message with the first one being the Minor Chastisement, said by some leaders of the Holy Church to be active now. In Matthew 24:14, we read: And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

Since the advent of social media and the internet streaming across the earth, the message of the Gospel has spread to every corner of the world. In conjunction with this first of the five “signs,” comes another, a second one that has brought us to this place in time. That is the removal of God from homes and communities, the persecution of Christianity and the Churches, both abroad and now here in the United States of America, where such a realization would never have been imagined ten years ago. The United States of America, consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the Immaculate Conception, is the last place ever expected to tolerate the persecution of Christianity and God’s people. These persecutions are, now, fully visible in many communities. The removal of God and Christian prayer from public places, homes, schools, and from the lips of a multitude of believers is a most dangerous harbinger of doom. The rise of satanic cults, as prophesied by Pope Leo XIII, slithering out of the shadows is now publicly rooted in societies while statues of Jesus and Mary, and the Holy Eucharist, are being viciously desecrated, churches are being burned, and priests martyred.

From the divisions within the Holy church culminated thousands of new denominations of the Christian faith, and together with other faiths who worship different gods, many of these over the centuries did not, and still do not, believe that the Bishop of Rome, the Pope, is the Apostolic successor to Jesus Christ. Speaking truth, Christ gave the directive for leadership for His “church” and that directive has passed down from Peter to the current Pope, where the role of the Holy Father, today, has been minimized and trivialized to the point of breeding secular contempt for God’s Word, through the annihilation of the faith, through scandal and blasphemy occurring from both within and without in massive measure, this from every corner of the earth. This point is worth repeating throughout these pages. The Bishop of Rome, the Holy Father...the Pope, is the one, true representative of Christ here on earth despite that not every Pope has shown loyalty or obedience to God or to His flock. The Holy Father is, without question, the “Vicar of Christ” here on earth, and that title cannot be, nor should not be, denied! The very word “vicarious,” in Latin, means “substitute, deputy, proxy...” The Holy Father, therefore, is substituting for Jesus Christ in His temporary absence on earth. But what should the Pope(s) be doing when secular society has targeted the Holy Church, its ways and ancient traditions?

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

Let us here focus on the situations present day and how these might affect the Catholic faith and our preparation for salvation.

As we remain assured of the current direction in which world governments are leading their constituents, it is important to note that the climate change agenda is a fixated portion of the NWO agenda to control the world and everything in it, including the air we breathe and the change in weather at will. There are programs already in place to alter the atmospheric designs. The United States government has used the H.A.R.P. program to alter weather patterns since the 1960’s, and with the frequent spaceflights disturbing the natural order of the skies and the atmospheric pressure, is it any wonder that the climate is reacting harshly to these constant interferences? Earth's climate has been changing since time immemorial. The Creator of all created nature and the climatic patterns and, yet, the world, and yes; the Vatican, seem to neglect the Creator's role in everything on the earth, under the earth, and in the heavens above. Little or no credibility is given God for creating and controlling even the weather. The Bible tells us about earthquakes and fires as endless streams of fire ablaze in forests across the United States. The severe and unusual weather patterns are increasing, growing stronger and recurring more frequently in many areas across the world, however, are these really owing to "climate change?" Or is the severity of these changes God's way of showing us that He is still in charge? Are we undergoing a minor chastisement? As has been foretold by apparitions of the Blessed Mother, the earth will shake; and by His Hand. Consider, now, that the earth has been forcibly shaking. September and October of 2021 unleashed devastating outbreaks of hurricanes, tornadoes, hail, flooding, horrific storms, and with the entire "ring of fire" and other volcanoes active and spewing damaging rivers of lava, accentuated earthquakes, and threats of tsunamis, all at one time, unlike what we have seen before. These disasters seem to be more frequent and the consequences, though severe and in many instances debilitating, have not yet destroyed the world. Is the world population also undergoing a minor chastisement with the onset of devastating and unknown plagues? How can we be sure if mankind has provoked these events, or if it is God?

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

If it is God, then, shaking the earth; take heed. Be mindful and pray. Remember, as we have been told by Saints, prophets, and in the Bible, keep your eyes focused upon the heavens. (Luke 21:28; Joel 2:30-31; Revelation 21:2; Acts 2:19; Isaiah 13:21) Signs will come from Heaven for all the world to see. Watch for angels and Religious, both real and as forms in the clouds such as the large Cross formed of white clouds hovering above one of the recent Trump rallies, a vision that was noticed by hundreds in attendance and by many more online. The time is now to examine your conscious and repent for sins, for we know the advent of that day has come into focus as destiny looms upon the not too distant horizon. Are you prepared?

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

The world has changed. Mankind has changed. The Holy Church has changed. Taking note, these changes have not been for the better because Satan is in the mix. Demons have been released on the earth prowling about to consume the vulnerable.

The late Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI had forewarned that the spirit of the antichrist is here. In a statement supplied in a letter written by Pope Benedict, he wrote: "We see how the power of the Antichrist is expanding, and we can only pray that the Lord will give us strong shepherds who will defend his church in this hour of need from the power of evil."

The late Pontiff remarked that both homosexuality and abortion are borne of the spirit of antichrist. In reality, all things against the Will of God are borne of the evil one.

Pope Francis I states that homosexuality is a sin, however, he never mentions the verses in the Bible which speak about the existence of abnormal lust. The current Holy Father has confused, and continues, to confuse the faithful. Pope

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

Francis has been called into question more recently for his leniency toward German Bishops who support LGBTQ, and, specifically, his leniency toward Father James Martin, a strong advocate for LGBTQ and same-sex marriage within the Holy Church, as both call to alter the Catholic teaching to accommodate same-sex unions. The Holy Father temporarily suspended a Bishop who was found to have five mistresses, and, yet, laicizes a most beloved priest, Father Frank Pavone, CEO of Priests for Life, an organization that is pro-life and stands aggressively against abortion, publicly, on a regular basis, over a questionable situation that may not bear credence at all.

When Father James Martin questioned the Holy Father on his most recent statement referring to homosexuality as a “sin” but “not a criminal act,” the Holy Father responded in a letter, stating: “When I said it is a sin I was simply referring to Catholic moral teaching which says that every sexual act outside of marriage is a sin.”

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI knew that both homosexuality and abortion are the work of Satan and the antichrist and stated it emphatically. What Pope Francis neglected to say to Father Martin is found in the Bible; that not only is homosexuality a sin, it is an abomination to God. Father James Martin, a Jesuit priest, knows well the Bible and its contents. Yet, he is one who is corrupting the Holy Church and has been neither suspended or laicized for heresy.

Is Your Soul Prepared for the Journey?

So, what does the Bible say about homosexuality?

1. You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination – Leviticus 18:22, and Leviticus 20:13 - If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them. This is one reference and the punishment is quite severe.

2. For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural, and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in their own persons the due penalty for their error (Rom. 1:26–27).

3. Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor sexual perverts, nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor robbers will inherit the kingdom of God” (1 Cor. 6:9–10).

4. Now we know that the law is good, if any one uses it lawfully, understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, immoral persons, sodomites, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine” (1 Tim. 1:8–10).

5. Just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise acted immorally and indulged in unnatural lust, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire” (Jude 7).

The true story of Sodom and Gomorrah should be great testimony to God’s displeasure and anger over homosexuality. We find this truth to be written in Genesis 19: 1-15 :

1 The two angels reached Sodom in the evening, as Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he got up to greet them; and bowing down with his face to the ground,

2 he said, “Please, my lords, come aside into your servant’s house for the night, and bathe your feet; you can get up early to continue your journey.” But they replied, “No, we will pass the night in the town square.”*

3 He urged them so strongly, however, that they turned aside to his place and entered his house. He prepared a banquet for them, baking unleavened bread, and they dined.

4 Before they went to bed, the townsmen of Sodom, both young and old—all the people to the last man—surrounded the house.

5 They called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to your house tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have sexual relations with them.”

6 Lot went out to meet them at the entrance. When he had shut the door behind him,

7 he said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not do this wicked thing!

8 I have two daughters who have never had sexual relations with men. Let me bring them out to you,* and you may do to them as you please. But do not do anything to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

9 They replied, “Stand back! This man,” they said, “came here as a resident alien, and now he dares to give orders! We will treat you worse than them!”

With that, they pressed hard against Lot, moving in closer to break down the door.”

10 But his guests put out their hands, pulled Lot inside with them, and closed the door;

11 they struck the men at the entrance of the house, small and great, with such a blinding light* that they were utterly unable to find the doorway.

12 Then the guests said to Lot: “Who else belongs to you here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, all who belong to you in the city—take them away from this place!”

13 We are about to destroy this place, for the outcry reaching the LORD against those here is so great that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had contracted marriage with his daughters.* “Come on, leave this place,” he told them; “the LORD is about to destroy the city.” But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

15 As dawn was breaking, the angels urged Lot on, saying, “Come on! Take your wife with you and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.”

As the angels forewarned, the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were totally destroyed by the Hand of God. Fire and brimstone had begun to rain down until the lands and buildings, and those within, were completely consumed. Lot did escape with his wife and daughters, and as they were told not to look back or they would turn to pillars of salt, Lot’s wife, who turned back toward sin, turned about and immediately on that very spot became nothing more than a pillar of salt. The truth of God’s destruction upon that ungrateful and sinful land is evidenced today by archeologists discovery of the cities of Sodom, Gomorrah, and Zoar, all of them barren and white with ash. Further evidence of brimstone markings found in stones and still on the ground have been saved and studied. Most amazingly is a tall pillar standing out from what may be remnants of some buildings. Could this be Lot's wife?

The following photographs prove that these areas had been destroyed by fire for there is nothing left but ash. Nothing has ever grown there since nor built upon.

2 Peter 2: 6-10 - ⁶ He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by reducing them to ashes as a warning to future sinners;

⁷ but rescued Lot, an upright man who had been sickened by the debauched way in which these vile people behaved-

⁸ for that upright man, living among them, was outraged in his upright soul by the crimes that he saw and heard every day.

¹⁰ especially those who follow the desires of their corrupt human nature and have no respect for the Lord's authority. Such self-willed people with no reverence are not afraid of offending against the glorious ones,

Adultery, prostitution, and homosexuality are sins against God, mortal sins, and there is no way to minimize such sinful acts. While the homosexual condition, itself, is not a sin, the Catholic Church recognizes the condition as a disorder. Pope Francis refers to homosexuality as a “human condition.” It may well be, however, the act of two men/two women lying together for the purpose of sex is a mortal sin and, as previously stated, an abomination to God. The definition of “abomination” is “a thing disgusting and hateful.” Granted, we are all sinners, but those who continue to commit mortal sin without repentance or regret, are, thereby, committing serious offenses to God and, further, compromising their salvation and, perhaps, to threaten the salvation of others.

These words are not meant to instill hatred toward the LGBTQ community. It must be understood that the sinful acts of same-sex unions, like adultery and prostitution, have no place in the Holy Roman Catholic Church, nor in moral society, or what is left of it. Church leaders and, especially, the Pope, should not remain complacent regarding the moral codes of Catholic teaching. Sin is sin. Sin is Satan, and Satan is doing his worst to strike at the heart of the Holy Mother Church and those loyal to God. To avoid sin in the cases of adultery, prostitution, and homosexuality, the word “chaste” need be applied. Chastity, and legal marriage between a man and a woman, are two ways to help preserve souls from committing sinful acts of the flesh. Priests, Bishops, Cardinals, and Popes, who remain reticent in addressing sins of the flesh have already sought to threaten their own salvation and, in some instances, the salvation of those of the flock in their charge. Punishment by God is real, as we have seen with Sodom and Gomorrah. It exists and can come in any form here on earth, or after death, in Purgatory. The most final and most devastating punishment by God for the unrepenting soul is Hell. Please do not lose sight of this truth.

The Bible is the Word of God, complete and unabridged. It is NOT a living document that can be amended or re-written; it is set in stone, from the original Greek writings to the translations of today, making it easier for some to understand, God's Word cannot be changed or altered.

How much longer can Christians tolerate the hand of evil tormenting and destroying the Sanctity of God on earth? There must be zero tolerance for Satan and the antichrist(s). The power remains, and is contained, within God, and dispersed only of His Will through his High General, Saint Michael the Archangel and his legions. Satan is on the gangplank, soon to be shoved off, down into the flaming pit which will then be sealed up forever. So, who will you follow? Have you decided, or are you confused because you do not believe in a God, or, perhaps, you believe in the wrong god? The simple conclusion is: if you desire eternal life, eternity in the presence of God and with those who have gone before us, and if you desire to believe, repent for sins, do good unto others, and spread love rather than violence and hatred, God will Bless you. Even if you are confused and uncertain, seek help from the Lord, ask Him to help you find your way through a world you never knew about or understood.

Christ is the only way to salvation. Satan and his minions can be forcibly defeated with one weapon only: loyalty to God, to the Savior and Lord, and by remaining true to the Christian faith. Satan has no power over God. The light of God will always be victorious over the darkness. Look for it, embrace it. Believe it.

The faithful, and even the non-believers and atheists, have long questioned, and doubted, that God is extremely harsh on sinners. Many are of the belief that God is all-forgiving and that all sins are automatically forgiven if one just says they are sorry, and that all people will go to Heaven, regardless of sin. This is where the dividing line between Catholicism and Protestant is emboldened. The Catholic Church, through the ordination by God of priests, can forgive sin through the Sacrament of Confession, also known as Reconciliation. The Sacrament of Confession is one of seven (7) Sacraments of the Holy Church. If you go to Confession to repent for sins, you are being forgiven directly by God, through the priest ordained by God. No Protestant church can claim this. In the Catholic Church, the Holy Eucharist becomes the actual body and blood of Jesus Christ on the Altar during Consecration. The Protestant churches giving out the bread during Mass are doing so symbolically, for the true body and blood of Christ are not found in the possession of those who have not been ordained by God.

Once in the confessional, located most often at the far end of the church, the priest decides upon the content of the sin being confessed if he will forgive or not forgive. Understand, however, that to be forgiven by a priest on earth may not be without consequence, dependent upon the sin. Forgiveness for venial sin may be justified by temporal punishment and subject to Purgatory after death, whereas justification and punishment for mortal sins may be subject to eternal punishment. At the time of death, a person who confesses their sins before a Priest will receive an “Apostolic Pardon”: Apostolic Pardon is an indulgence given for the remission of temporal punishment due to sin. Apostolic Pardon is given by a priest, usually along with Viaticum (reception of Communion by a dying person.)

Prior to 1972, “Extreme Unction,” a term used by the Catholic Church for centuries, is now referred to as “Anointing of the Sick.” This Sacrament is given by a Priest to a dying person, to include Confession, anointing with oils, and Viaticum, which is Holy Communion, along with prayers for the salvation of the dying soul. This Sacrament is more popularly known as “last rites.” Whether we are to receive punishment for sins after death, even those that were forgiven on earth, is entirely up to God, alone. The consequences of sinning can be very severe whether here or in the hereafter, so, the best way to avoid punishment for sin, be it temporal or eternal, is to think before you leap. Think long and hard the next time you are about to indulge in something that could be a deeper sin than you might ever have imagined. It is always best not to sin at all. Though it is never easy for us mortals to be entirely without sin, we must try, and if we fail, we must repent. Sin is rooted temptation by the evil one. Every sin we commit encourages the beast who prides himself on the number of victims he gains for his own by taking away from God. Strive to become a saint. Most saints were sinners long before they became saints so there is always hope that you can turn your life around before it is too late.

The most important gift presented from God to His children for our salvation has come to us with the advent of the Divine Mercy, Our Lord's final attempt to arouse all souls to the enlightenment that our God is a loving and merciful God. He is truly merciful and loving, but He is also the harsh judge of sinners and sin, and yes; God is to be both feared and adored. God loves us and, still, we continue to offend Him, with many blaspheming Him without hesitation or thought to His feelings. Yes; God has feelings, and He needs us to console Him, to show Him our love whenever we can, even if we only take an hour out of our busy day to visit with Him through words, deeds and prayer. He loves us so much, in fact, that He bestowed upon us a special gift with which to express His love; that being, Divine Mercy, given to us through His only son, Jesus Christ.

Jesus appeared to a humble Roman Catholic nun, Sister (Saint) Faustina Kowalska in 1932 and dictated to her His most intimate directives for the ways for God's Children to obtain Mercy. Through Sister (Saint) Faustina, Christ outlined His agenda for enabling us one last chance to receive God's final mercy in these end times, the last chance for us to save our souls.

In a series of apparitions to Sister (Saint) Faustina, Christ appeared and dictated to her what has become a "book" known as her diary, the "Diary of Saint Faustina," that has been in continuous publication since its inception. In her writings Christ details what He expects, not only from Sister Faustina, but, hence, from all of God's children. The appearance of Jesus to Sister (Saint) Faustina, in miraculous splendor, was in final gesture of His love for us, and His hope that we would, and will, apply for the mercies available to us in return for our unending devotion to Him. Because of her devotion to Our Lord and His message, Sister Faustina became known as the Secretary Apostle of the Jesus Christ, and was later beatified and canonized by Pope Saint John Paul II. On the Feast of Divine Mercy, which is the first Sunday after Easter, April 18, 1993, "Pope John Paul II elevated Sister Faustina to the status of Blessed," Beatifying the devout nun. Pope (Saint) John Paul II, in 1997, called then Blessed, Sister Faustina, "the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our day." Pope (Saint) John Paul II, the Great Mercy Pope," beheld a special devotion for Divine Mercy and Sister Faustina whom he canonized on April 30, 2000 on Divine Mercy Sunday. It is no wonder that Pope (Saint) John Paul II passed away on 3 April 2005, on the eve of Divine Mercy Sunday.

Finally, Christ's re-emergence in the last century, and His message of Divine Mercy, is proof positive that the days until salvation are few in number. The fact that Christ came for this purpose; to give us one last chance to believe and repent, is, in and of itself, an urgent, and final, attempt to gather the straying flock for eternal life in His presence. As He had appeared to a humble Roman Catholic nun with His directive for her, it should be undeniably clear that Jesus Christ is, undeniably, God.

Thus, we learn that all Christians, despite, of course, being aligned to God and to Jesus Christ in the Christian faith, do not, know or understand Apostolic Succession, the Ordinations, the Sacraments, or the Sacredness of the Holy Eucharist, found only in the Tabernacles of the Holy Mother Church. Have you ever wondered why Satan ardently seeks the destruction of the Holy Church and the Holy Eucharist? It is because he knows to Whom the Holy Church belongs, and Whose flesh is consecrated therein; the one he has promised to destroy.

On the pages of this website are useful explanations of the true faith, Divine Mercy, the Holy Fathers past and present, to be followed by the spiritual side of life, with a special section devoted to the Holy souls in Purgatory. All of this is brought forth with sincere hope that those who remain confused by myths, untruths, and the scandalous sins of those entrusted by Jesus to teach the Will of God, will find God or return to Him.

The stories about life after death and the soul's survival after death has long been a topic on which the Roman Catholic Church, for centuries, remained silent, despite that the ultimate proof of life existing after death exists with Christ's Resurrection from death to eternity. No modern-day teachings, or ancient books, are necessary to explain the truth of life after death, which is only to accept and believe that Jesus Christ gave us the only proof we will ever need. Today, the church fathers are more transparent, and this knowledge is more earnestly accepted and discussed openly. Christ showed us that upon death, we all will be resurrected, just as He was, for He IS the Resurrection.

Life, death, and survival of the soul after death is, in and of itself, triune. The cycle of life through which a soul must pass, first, through a lifetime on earth, followed by death, and, finally, the soul rising into the spirit before becoming one with God.
